Ybor City Museum Society Announces 40th Annual Legacy Awards Recipients

TAMPA, FL –The Ybor City Museum Society has announced the recipients of the 2024 Legacy Awards, who were selected for their significant contributions to the heritage and culture of Ybor City and throughout Tampa.

The Legacy Awards celebrate the achievements of visionaries who have made lasting impacts on Ybor City, Tampa’s National Historic Landmark District.

Victor Padilla has been selected to receive the Vicente Martinez-Ybor Award for his contributions to the community and the preservation of Ybor City’s cultural heritage.

Andrew “Andy” Huse has been selected to receive the Anthony “Tony” Pizzo Award for his contributions to the preservation of Ybor City’s history.

Darryl Shaw has been selected to receive the Adela Gonzmart Award for his contributions to the growth of community through arts, commerce, and development.

Tony Saladino, Jr. has been selected to receive the 1st Annual Louis “Lou” Piniella Award for his contributions to the community and to the preservation of baseball, one of Tampa’s oldest sports.

Lissette Campos, Mistress of Ceremonies, will be serving as emcee to help honor the recipients and commemorate the 40th Annual Legacy Awards. The Legacy Awards Brunch will be held on Sunday, June 9, 2024, from 11:30am-1:30pm, in the Siboney Room of the Columbia Restaurant. Reservations are required and seating is limited. For more information or to make a reservation, contact the Ybor City Museum Society at 813.247.1434 or visit www.ybormuseum.org.

All proceeds benefit the Ybor City Museum Society, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization whose mission is preserving, promoting and celebrating the unique cultural heritage of Ybor City.
